MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

1. This memorandum recommends action in Paragraph 3.
2. Henry Lamar, Press officer of the National Association of Manufacturers, asks if copies of your talk scheduled for 1:30 PM, Friday, 4 December 1959, will be available in advance so that NAM may get copies to its field offices and thus get the maximum publicity from your speech. I told him you usually work on a speech until the last minute but if you do finish your writing so that an advance copy will be available we will let him know and will get copies to him. They would like 200 copies to be brought with you to New York, if there is no advance, so that the Press, may be taken care of, and that delivery be to Mr. Lamar or his assistant in the NAM Press Room (Room 4M) in the Waldorf.
3. It is RECOMMENDED that advance copies be available by 2 December for release at 1:30 PM EST on 4 December 1959.
